

Adding Search Apps to Your Tablet or Smartphone

Searching on a tablet really hinges on having the best apps for searching on the device. So the instructions below show you how to add an app to your tablet. Specifically I recommend that you add Google , Wikipanion , and YouTube  to your tablet.

There are three sets of step-by-step instructions below. The first set is for the iPhone or iPad's  App Store. The second set of instructions is for an Android device using the Google  Play Store. The last set of instructions is for Microsoft's  App Store if you have a Surface.

iPhone & iPad Instructions

To Add an App from the App Store :

- 1) Tap in the Search box and type Wikipanion.
- 2) Tap on Wikipanion, if it appears in the Results list, or tap Search on the keyboard.
- 3) If you want to learn more about the app, tap on its logo or icon.
- 4) Tap on the Free box in the top right of the Wikipanion box to download the app to your tablet.
- 5) Tap on Install.
- 6) You will be asked to type the password that you chose when you created your account.
- 7) A circle  will appear while the app is being installed. You'll know the process is complete when the word Open appears.
- 8) Close out of the App Store by pressing the Home  button.

Android Smartphone & Tablet Instructions
